FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATION OF THE UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

Petitioner Patrick W. Boyd II, a Texas prisoner, has filed an application to proceed in forma pauperis in this habeas case brought under 28 U.S.C. § 2254. For the reasons stated herein, the application should be denied.

I.

In 2005, petitioner was convicted of murder and sentenced to life imprisonment. His conviction and sentence were affirmed on direct appeal. Boyd v. State, No. 08-05-00372-CR, 2007 WL 614041 (Tex. App.--El Paso, Feb. 28, 2007, pet. ref'd). Petitioner also filed an application for state post-conviction relief. The application was denied without written order. Ex parte Boyd, WR-74,855-01 (Tex. Crim. App. Dec. 22, 2010). Petitioner then filed this action in federal district court. Process has been withheld pending a determination of his in forma pauperis status.

II.

The standards governing in forma pauperis motions are set forth in 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a). The district court may authorize the commencement of a civil action without the prepayment of fees or costs "by a person who submits an affidavit . . . that [he] is unable to pay such fees or give security therefor." 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(1). The court must examine the financial condition of the applicant in order to determine whether the payment of fees would cause an undue financial hardship. Prows v. Kastner, 842 F.2d 138, 140 (5th Cir.), cert. denied, 109 S.Ct. 364 (1988). The amount of money available to an inmate in his prison trust account or from other sources should be considered. See id.; Braden v. Estelle, 428 F.Supp. 595, 601 (S.D. Tex. 1977).

Petitioner has submitted a certified copy of his inmate trust account statement which shows that he currently has $301.20 on deposit with prison officials. The filing fee for a habeas petition is $5.00. 28 U.S.C. § 1914(a). The court concludes that petitioner is able to pay this fee without causing undue financial hardship. See also MISC. ORDER 13 at ¶ 9 (N.D. Tex. Feb. 1, 1977) (requiring habeas petitioner to pay filing fee if prison account or other resources exceed $50.00).

RECOMMENDATION

Petitioner's application to proceed in forma pauperis [Doc. #2] should be denied. If petitioner fails to pay the $5.00 statutory filing fee within 20 days after this recommendation is adopted by the district judge, this case should be dismissed without further notice.

A copy of this report and recommendation shall be served on all parties in the manner provided by law. Any party who objects to any part of this report and recommendation must file specific written objections within 14 days after being served with a copy. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); FED. R. CIV. P. 72(b). In order to be specific, an objection must identify the specific finding or recommendation to which objection is made, state the basis for the objection, and specify the place in the magistrate judge's report and recommendation where the disputed determination is found. An objection that merely incorporates by reference or refers to the briefing before the magistrate judge is not specific. Failure to file specific written objections will bar the aggrieved party from appealing the factual findings and legal conclusions of the magistrate judge that are accepted or adopted by the district court, except upon grounds of plain error. See Douglass v. United Services Automobile Ass'n, 79 F.3d 1415, 1417 (5th Cir. 1996).

DATED: January 14, 2011.
